

Obituary.

Mrs. MOLLIE HOGUE died at Holcomb, Dunklin county, Mo., December 31st, 1891, after a painful, but short illness.

Mollie Howell was born at Bonham, Texas, November 15th, 1854. She united at an early age with the Methodist church, of which she was a devoted member and an active Sunday School worker. She was married at Union City, Tenn., May 25, 1880, to John A. Hogue, an enterprising merchant of Dunklin county. She was the mother of six children, three of whom survive her.

Mr. Hogue moved with his family in 1883 from Dunklin county to Arcadia, where they lived eight years; during this time Mrs. Hogue made many friends and acquaintances, who were grieved to hear of her death. It was with a happy heart that she left Arcadia for Holcomb last November in company with her three little ones to join her husband who had gone several months before her to prepare a new home—a home in which God permitted her to live only a short time—she was taken to that home above that is not made with hands. She was kind and sympathetic with her neighbors, of whom she was never known to say aught but good.

We deeply sympathize with the husband, as he pursues his life work so sad and lonely—he above all others will miss her presence and counsel.

To the mother, Mrs. Howell, and sister, Miss Ella Howell, who arrived from the far South several hours after her spirit had winged its flight, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. May this sad affliction cause them all to draw nearer to God and help them to realize that "All things work together for good to them that love God." Arcadia, Jan. 2d. A FRIEND.

ROBERTSON.—On the 26th inst. Mrs. MARGARET J. wife of John B. Robertson, aged 56 years.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, on Monday, 28th, at 3 o'clock, P. M., from her husband's residence, 3418 Ludlow Street, West Philadelphia. Interment at Woodland Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31, '91.

Ed. Register.—The above notice is taken from the Philadelphia Press of the 28th inst. Mr. Robertson had been for several days and was at the time of his wife's death seriously sick with la grippe, but is at this time considered out of danger. Mrs. Robertson was sick but a short time and died of pneumonia. The funeral was attended by a large number of Philadelphia friends besides his father of Wisconsin, brother and sister of Cincinnati and myself. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are well known at Graniteville, Mo., where he was employed for several years as foreman by the Synite Granite Company. Mr. Robertson and eight children are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

Respectfully yours,
E. A. TAYLOR.

With this SOAP of amber hue,
Quickly vanished each stain,
And their mittens again
Were as bright and soft as new.
